

Local Matters.

TUESDAY Morning, December 20, 185.

Old Papers.—One thousand old papers for sale—apply at the Appeal office.

BODDIE'S COURT.—There were twenty-eight cases before the recorder yesterday, eleven of whom were sent to the grand jury.

LAW SUIT.—Fowler & Co., the advertising cotton factors, yesterday sold a list of cotton names and colored bales.

COTTON RECEIPTS.—The number of bales of cotton received in the city during last week from railroad and river was 14,235 bales.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting the respected and well-known Col. Brugh. He is in town as the agent of Mr. Anderson.

AHEAD OF TIME.—Geo. Pattison & Co. have received their Magazine for January ahead of time. Like a fine number.

THE OLD FOLK.—This company troupe gave their last entertainment in this city last evening, and embarked on the winter tour for New Orleans.

M. A. SHINN.—This gentleman will be known in this city as an actor, the leading business with Scott's theatrical company at Holy Spruce, Mississippi.

MISSOURI.—A man named Wm. G. Mills was arrested in this city Sunday on suspicion of having committed a murder recently near Petersburg, Va. The accused will await a trial from the court of Mississ.

WOMEN OR FASHION.—Mrs. Brown, the fashionable milliner of Union street, two doors east of Main, Bayou, has just received her "Book of the Month of Fashion," Le Moniteur des Modes, where visitors can see the very latest fashions.

CAPT. FRANK HICKS.—The late popular commander of the steamer Steamer Daniel Boone, arrived in this city. He has been detained here for a short time, below his usual place of residence, the Green House of two members of his family.

PERSONAL.—We were yesterday visited by Gen. Talliferro, Senator in the Mississippi legislature, from Tallahatchie, and by Capt. Robert Jones, of Holly Springs. They are en route from Jackson, the Mississippi capital, having adjourned until the 16th of next day.

A RECENT.—The drizzling snow, the piercing wind, the dullness within and the coldness without, all took out of winter's dream for a remedy, the pure bouillon and other fine wines, and liqueur at Hockley's, on Street, between Union and Gayoso, will be found first rate.

NEW PAPER.—Dr. F. C. Brooks, a gentleman of experience as a publisher, has issued a prospectus for a new weekly paper to be issued in this city, and to be called the Advertiser, a name somewhat unique. Success to the Advertiser!

MEMPHIS ENTERPRISE.—A meeting was held at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, the object of which was to devise means for the erection of a new church edifice at some convenient point in the city. The project will, we trust, be carried out.

WATER.—A store or a house for a few from one to three weeks, in the heart of the city, at a reasonable rental will be given the best bid of city residents give to the address, immediately room no. 300, Gayoso House, P. S.—A large and commodious room which answer.

THURSDAY.—To our friends Eve, T. W. Irvin and Mrs. Irvin, Baudry and E. A. Manning, the regular railroads, we return thanks to them for their kind hospitality.

MEMPHIS AND OHIO RAILROAD.—In our local columns of the 18th inst., I would say to the people interested, that the "paper press" is not the medium through which I give such information, but that, or rather, that the paper press is the exponent of the Truth.

THE WORLD.—The world, as far as I am concerned, will be bettered by the loss of two members of his family.

PERSONAL.—We were yesterday visited by Gen. Talliferro, Senator in the Mississippi legislature, from Tallahatchie, and by Capt. Robert Jones, of Holly Springs. They are en route from Jackson, the Mississippi capital, having adjourned until the 16th of next day.

A RECENT.—The drizzling snow, the piercing wind, the dullness within and the coldness without, all took out of winter's dream for a remedy, the pure bouillon and other fine wines, and liqueur at Hockley's, on Street, between Union and Gayoso, will be found first rate.
